

2019 Tulsa Reining Classic Conditions

General Show Conditions

All horse riders must fully comply with show conditions, governing body rules, where applicable and present required paperwork when needed (i.e. – competition license, annual membership, passport, etc.)

Stall and Entry Deadline: Must be received by August 7 – Stall reservation deadline and pre-entry deadline is to avoid all late penalties on entry fees. This deadline is to be RECEIVED by August 7. Postmarks are NOT considered. All horses fully entered in at least one class and with a stall purchased by this date will avoid late fees on additional ancillary and affiliate finals classes entered at the event as long as they are entered by noon the day prior to the class.

Ancillary Late Fee Schedule: Must be received by August 7. If received after August 7 but before August 26 at NOON - $25 penalty; If received after August 26 at NOON but before NOON, the day prior to class - $40 penalty (included in the draw); If received after NOON the day prior to class but before 6 am day of the class - $50 penalty (placed either at the end or beginning of class at show's discretion). No entries will be accepted after 6 am day of the class.

Refunds: Futurity and Derby entries, if scratched prior to August 7, will be refunded all entry fees minus the $25 office fee. NO refunds for Futurity and Derby entries after August 7. Ancillary entries, if scratched prior to the class draw, will be refunded all entry fees minus the $25 office fee.

Post-Entries are accepted for ancillary classes until 6 am the day of the class. Please see the Futurity and Derby conditions for entry acceptance and late penalties in these events. If the late entry was not included in the draw, rider will draw top or bottom of the order at show management's discretion. Entries that might be scratched and then re-added will add back into their original draw position. Additional restrictions apply for Futurity and Derby entries.

Stalls: All horses are required to stall. There are no day fees or tie-outs. You cannot show from your trailer at Expo Square. Prepaid stalls are $175 per stall until August 7 (see above). Stalls ordered or paid after August 7 are $200 per stall. Move-in begins Tuesday, August 20. NO late departures allowed after 4 am Monday, September 2. Contact Tulsa Reining Classic for any exceptions to this. Unapproved exceptions will be charged $100 per stall.

 Once ordered, there shall be no refund on stalls. Sorry, no exceptions **

Bedding may be preordered by using the Bedding Form, which should be submitted to Pete's Feed. Arrivals estimated to arrive after 6 pm must preorder shavings. Prices for bedding can be found on the Bedding Form.

Dogs: Dogs will be allowed throughout the Expo Square facility but must be on leash at all times. Failure to have dogs leashed or penned will result in a $50 fine to be given to Rein in Cancer. Failure to clean up after dog will also incur a donation/fine. No dogs with the exception of accredited Therapy Dogs will be allowed in the Sponsor Area or in the seating area in front of Sponsor Area.

Judges Fees: For concurrent classes, only one Judges Fee is required per run. The highest Judges Fee in the set of concurrent classes only will apply.

Office Charge: An automatic and compulsory Office Fee will be assessed to each horse in the amount of $25. This fee covers the event's administrative cost for each horse.

Security Fee: An automatic and compulsory Security Fee will be assessed to each horse in the amount of $30. This fee covers the addition of a new schooling ring as well as round-the-clock security for participants and horses.

Video Fee: A Video Fee in the amount of $15 will be assessed for each run. For concurrent classes, only one Video Fee is required per run. This fee covers both Video Fee and Playback Fee.

Health Certificate: A 12-month negative Coggins test is required along with a 30-day health certificate written by a veterinarian at the point of origin to be presented upon arrival at Expo Square. Please be sure your health certificates and negative Coggins accompany the horses.

Entries will be complete once all payment has been received along with required documentation or horse/rider/owner credentials (i.e. – competition license, rider membership, owner membership when required, passport when required, etc.)

Prize Money: Will be paid to the owner of the horse as recorded on the NRHA Competition License at time of competition. A completed Payee Form will be required for each owner in order to receive payout.

Affiliate Regional Championships (ARC) Entries: Will be verified and double-checked by the NRHA representative at the event. The Tulsa Reining Classic is proud to once again host the South Central Affiliate Regional Championships, but in no way, can take responsibility for the correctness or accuracy of verification of these entries, and will only be able to act upon what we are instructed to do by the NRHA.

Information should be gathered and sought by way of the official event website: TulsaReining.com. The official event website and publications will take precedence over any other publication or website, including but not limited to the websites of the national governing bodies (NRHA and AQHA).

Open Tabs: Will be held in the show office. An open check or credit card number and connection to each horse on each check will be required to pick up competitor numbers. If there is no additional business on the account, you may pick up the open check or credit card authorization form at the end of the show. Checks not closed out within two hours after the end of the last class will be closed out according to the responsible party's account and will incur a $25 service fee, which will include mailing of a statement to the address on record. Trainers will be responsible for all client fees not paid before trainer closes out their tab (otherwise known as trainer splits). Trainer splits should be complete by NOON on Friday, August 30.

Video: No outside video is allowed. Competitors are encouraged to purchase video from the official show videographer and images from the official photographer. By way of entry into the event, competitors, and their respective employees, agents and family members grant the permission without remuneration for the use and public distribution of their image, likeness, voice and video for the possible promotion of the event.

Paid Warm-Ups: Will begin in the Ford Truck Arena on Thursday, August 22 and in the Mustang Arena on Friday, August 23 and will continue through Sunday, August 25 until 10 pm. Paid warm-ups may be included in sponsorship packages depending on your level of sponsorship. Non-sponsors may purchase paid-warm-ups, if available, for $30 in the Ford Truck Arena for 7 minutes of individual ride time or $30 in the Mustang Arena for 7 minutes of individual ride time. Use the Paid warm-up form to reserve your space, but PREFERENCE AND PRIORITY IS GIVEN TO SPONSORS of the Tulsa Reining Classic. Paid warm-up slots are non-refundable and will be automatically added to your show tab once ordered. If for any reason you cannot make your reserved time, there will be NO REFUNDS. Trading of slots is permissible; however, the name on the slot will always be the original reservation.

Open Riding: Time will be scheduled in between paid warm-up times as outlined on the Paid warm-up schedule.

Animal Welfare: The Tulsa Reining Classic, as a highly public event held in a major metropolitan area, reserves the right to investigate and take appropriate action in the event of an incident involving animal welfare concerns. Animal welfare is monitored by show stewards while at the horse show. Arenas will not be overcrowded and safety of horse and rider will be maintained to the best of our ability. This monitoring shall extend to the schooling areas and training times in accordance with the applicable governing body.

Hotels: Click on the hotel page of TulsaReining.com to view the host hotels: The Country Inn & Suites, The Embassy Suites and The Hilton Garden Inn. Be sure to mention group rates for the Tulsa Reining Classic. Please make sure you secure your room with one of our HOST HOTELS to give the show credit with the City of Tulsa for the record keeping and future support of our sport!

Camping: Expo Square offers a full service RV park on the grounds. Camping spaces are sold on a first-come, first-served basis for standard competitors for $40/night. Please contact Expo Square RV Park for details at 918-744-1113, ext. 2154. Sponsors of the TRC will have access to the close-in, 50-amp RV spaces exclusively designed for our event's VIPs. Check out Sponsorship Opportunities today to camp within a few steps of the barns and arena!

Show Management reserves the right to interpret all rules and regulations in the best interest of the event and of the promotion of the sport of Reining. All decisions are final. By way of making entry, competitors will assume responsibility for knowledge and attest that they have read and fully understand all event rules, as well as association and NGB rules and regulations. Show management reserves the right to modify or change conditions when necessary or at any time without notice without liability. In the event of cancellation, entry fees or other show fees paid in advance shall be refunded. Show management reserves the right to decide upon all questions in regard to or arising out of claims for damages or recourse of any kind. Under Oklahoma Law, an equine professional is not liable for injury or harm that may arise from an individual's participation in equine events or activities. For the purposes of this event, Show Management will be defined as the entire show committee, including, but not limited to Global Reining Sport Group, Pro Management, Inc. and the Oklahoma Reining Horse Association.

NSF Checks will be payable in cash, money order or cashier's check before services or products will be rendered plus a $50 NSF check fee.

Past Due Accounts: If a horse show client has an outstanding balance from prior years, the first funds received from that client will be applied to the outstanding balance.

Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity Conditions & Turnabout Farm Non Pro Futurity Conditions

Open division will be open to three-year-old horse/rider combinations that are not entered in the Developing Futurity. Non Pro division will be open to all three-year-old horse/rider combinations. All horses and riders must fully comply with show conditions, governing body rules, where applicable, and present required paperwork when needed (i.e. – competition license, annual membership, etc.).

Entry Deadline: Entries must be received by Wednesday, August 7 to avoid late fees.

Futurity Late Fee Schedule: Received after August 7 but by NOON on Monday, August 26 - $100; Received after NOON on August 26 but by NOON on Thursday, August 29 for Non Pro divisions and NOON on Friday, August 30 for Open divisions - $150. Absolutely no entries after noon the day prior to the class.

Cross-Entry Requirement is compulsory for all entries except for youth. Riders must enter up one class from the lowest division of the rider's eligibility. (i.e. – to be able to enter the Level 2 class, a rider must also enter the Level 3 class). To be eligible for Prime Time, rider must be fully entered, i.e. if rider qualifies for Level 1 class, they must also enter Level 2 class and so on.

Due to the hardship on some riders based in the eligibility of Level 1 Open Riders who are not eligible for Level 2, Tulsa Reining Classic management has made the following entry concession:

If you are a Level 1 Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity rider and ineligible for Level 2 ONLY, you may enter up one level to Level 3 without having to enter Level 4. This entry into the Derby will make you eligible to enter the novice horse division as well.

Due to the hardship on some riders based in the eligibility of Level 1 Non Pro Riders who are not eligible for Level 2, Tulsa Reining Classic management has made the following entry concession:

If you are a Level 1 Turnabout Farm Non Pro Futurity rider and ineligible for Level 2 ONLY, you may enter up one level to Level 3 without having to enter Level 4.

Divisions within a class may be added or changed without penalty until NOON on Thursday, August 29 for Non Pro divisions and NOON on Friday, August 30 for Open divisions. In the event of division changes resulting in a change in entry fees required versus entry fees paid, no refunds will be granted. However, competitor must pay for an increase in fees required versus fees paid.

Substitutions: Substitutions of riders will be allowed until NOON on August 29 for Non Pro divisions and NOON on August 30 for Open divisions. Substitutions of horses will NOT be allowed.

Horses may be shown two-handed in any legal bridle, snaffle bit or hackamore.

Prize Money: Will be paid to the owner of the horse as recorded on the NRHA Competition License at time of competition. A completed Payee Form will be required for each owner in order to receive payout. The TRC is not responsible for failure of owners to transfer horses into their name before the event or failure of owners to provide current competition license.

Turnabout Farm Non Pro Futurity will run on Friday, August 30 and the Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity will run on Saturday, August 31.

Three judges will be used, with all scores to count for the final overall score. All judges' decisions will be final. An equipment judge stationed at the Pre-Check will be used at the Hollywoodstinseltown Open and Turnabout Farm Non Pro Futurity.

By way of entry, riders accept that they have read and understand all event rules as well as association rules and regulations. Furthermore, riders are exclusively responsible to adhere to eligibility requirements. A rider who enters an event or division in which he or she is ineligible will forfeit all winnings and entry fees and be subject to disciplinary action, should the NRHA choose to do so. Riders are responsible for all entry information regardless of the person who may have completed the entry.

Please refer to the Published Tentative Schedule of Events for a breakdown of classes within each division of the Hollywoodstinseltown Open and Turnabout Farm Non-Pro Futurity.

The Hollywoodstinseltown Open and the Turnabout Farm Non-Pro Futurity will use Payback Schedule B for prize money distribution.

Equo Developing Horse Futurity and Tamarack Ranch Developing Horse Futurity Show Conditions

Open to three-year-old horse/rider combinations that are not entered in the Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity (horses may still be shown in the Turnabout Farm Non Pro Futurity but not in the Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity). All horses and riders must fully comply with show conditions, governing body rules, where applicable and present required paperwork when needed (i.e. – competition license, annual membership, etc.).

Entry Deadline: Entries must be received by Wednesday, August 7 to avoid late fees.

Equo Developing Horse Futurity and Tamarack Ranch Developing Horse Futurity Late Fee Schedule: Received after August 7 but by NOON on Monday, August 26 - $100; Received after NOON on August 26 but by NOON on Tuesday, August 27 - $150. Absolutely no entries after noon on Tuesday, August 27.

Cross-Entry Requirement is compulsory for all entries except youth. Riders must enter up one class from the lowest division of the rider's eligibility. (i.e. – to be able to enter the Level 2 class, a rider must also enter the Level 3 class).

Classes within a division may be added or changed without penalty until NOON on Tuesday, August 27. In the event of division changes resulting in a change in entry fees required versus entry fees paid, no refunds will be granted. However, competitor must pay for an increase in fees required versus fees paid.

Substitutions: Substitutions of riders will be allowed until NOON on Tuesday, August 27. Substitutions of horses will NOT be allowed.

Horses may be shown two-handed in any legal bridle, snaffle bit or hackamore; however, equipment cannot be changed in the event of a run-off.

Prize Money Will be paid to the owner of the horse as recorded on the NRHA Competition License at time of competition. A completed Payee Form will be required for each owner in order to receive payout. The TRC is not responsible for failure of owners to transfer horses into their name before the event or failure of owners to provide current competition license.

Equo Developing Horse Futurity and Tamarack Ranch Developing Horse Futurity will run on Wednesday, August 28 in the Ford Truck Arena.

Three judges will be used, with all scores to count for the final overall score. All judges' decisions will be final. An equipment judge stationed at the Pre-Check will be used at the Equo Developing Horse Futurity and Tamarack Ranch Developing Horse Futurity.

By way of entry, riders accept that they have read and understand all event rules as well as association rules and regulations. Furthermore, riders are exclusively responsible to adhere to eligibility requirements. A rider who enters an event or division in which he or she is ineligible will forfeit all winnings and entry fees and be subject to disciplinary action, should the NRHA choose to do so. Riders are responsible for all entry information regardless of the person who may have completed the entry.

Please refer to the Published Tentative Schedule of Events for a break-down of classes within each division of the Developing Horse Futurity.

The Developing Horse Futurity will use Payback Schedule B for prize money distribution.

Open Derby, Novice Open Derby, SmartPak Non Pro Derby, Novice Non Pro Derby Conditions

The Novice Open Derby will be run concurrently with the Open Derby and is open to horses already fully entered in the Open Derby. The Novice Non Pro Derby will be run concurrently with the SmartPak Non Pro Derby and is open to horses already fully entered in the Non Pro Derby.

Novice horses must have earned less than $25,000 as of July 8, 2019. Determination of horses' eligibility is the responsibility of the rider, but the TRC show office will also verify eligibility. For assistance with eligibility verification, please contact the TRC office at (580) 759-2525.

Entry Deadline - Entries must be received by Wednesday, August 7 to avoid late fees.

Derby Late Fee Schedule - Received after August 7 but by NOON on Sunday, August 25 - $100; Received after NOON on August 25 but by NOON on Wednesday, August 28 for Non Pro divisions, and NOON on Friday, August 30 for Open divisions - $150. Absolutely no entries after noon the day prior to the class.

Cross-Entry Requirement is compulsory for all entries except for youth. Riders must enter up one class from the lowest division of the rider's eligibility. (i.e. – to be able to enter the Level 2 class, a rider must also enter the Level 3 class).

Due to the hardship on some riders based in the eligibility of Level 1 Open Riders who are not eligible for Level 2, Tulsa Reining Classic management has made the following entry concession:

If you are a level 1 Open Derby rider and ineligible for level 2 ONLY, you may enter up one level to Level 3 without having to enter Level 4. This entry into the Derby will make you eligible to enter the novice horse division as well.

Due to the hardship on some riders based in the eligibility of Level 1 Non Pro Riders who are not eligible for Level 2, Tulsa Reining Classic management has made the following entry concession:

If you are a Level 1 SmartPak Non Pro Derby rider and ineligible for Level 2 ONLY, you may enter up one level to Level 3 without having to enter Level 4. This entry into the Derby will make you eligible to enter the novice horse division as well.

Classes within a division in the Derby(s) may be added or changed without penalty until NOON on Wednesday, August 29 for Non Pro divisions, and NOON on Friday, August 30 for Open divisions. In the event of division changes resulting in a change in entry fees required versus entry fees paid, no refunds will be granted. However, competitor must pay for an increase in fees required versus fees paid.

Substitution: Substitutions of riders will be allowed until NOON on Wednesday, August 28 for Non Pro divisions, and NOON on Friday, August 30 for Open divisions. Substitutions of horses will NOT be allowed.

Horses may be 4, 5 or 6 years old and should be shown one-handed in any legal bit.

Prize Money Will be paid to the owner of the horse as recorded on the NRHA Competition License at time of competition. A completed Payee Form will be required for each owner in order to receive payout. The TRC is not responsible for failure of owners to transfer horses into their name before the event or failure of owners to provide current competition license.

Three judges will be used in the Open Derby, Novice Open Derby, SmartPak Non Pro Derby and Novice Non Pro Derby, with all scores to count for the final overall score. All judges' decisions will be final. An equipment judge stationed at the Pre-Check will be used at the Open Derby, Novice Open Derby & Non Pro Derby and Novice Non Pro Derby.

By way of entry, riders accept that they have read and understand all event rules as well as association rules and regulations. Furthermore, riders are exclusively responsible to adhere to eligibility requirements. A rider who enters an event or division in which he or she is ineligible will forfeit all winnings and entry fees and be subject to NRHA disciplinary action. Riders are responsible for all entry information regardless of the person who may have completed the entry.

Please refer to the Published Tentative Schedule of Events for a breakdown of classes within each division of the Open Derby, Novice Open Derby, SmartPak Non Pro Derby and Novice Non Pro Derby.

The Open and Non Pro Derbies will use Payback Schedule B for prize money distribution.